COVID-19: Antivirus B extended until the end of the year

After the Antivirus A program has already been extended (see here for details), the Antivirus B program has now also been extended until December 31, 2020 in accordance with a government resolution.

Antivirus B supports employers who are affected by the effects of the COVID pandemic, e.g. due to a decline in sales or bottlenecks in deliveries.

State support will continue unchanged until December 31, 2020. The employer will be reimbursed an amount equal to 60% of the wages and salaries paid (including employer contributions) up to a maximum of CZK 29,000 per employee and month.

Further details on Antivirus B can also be found in our previous client information at

For the sake of completeness, we note that the Antivirus C program - waiver of employer's social security contributions - ended on August 31, 2020 and was not extended.
