Restrictions on the Antivirus programme

The government has extended only part of the Antivirus A programme until the end of June 2021.

Antivirus A can thus continue to be used for June 2021 by employers whose employees have been quarantined or isolated due to COVID-19. The employer will receive an amount equal to 80% of the wage compensation payments made (including employer contributions), up to a maximum of CZK 39,000 per employee per month.

The programmes Antivirus A plus and Antivirus B were discontinued on 31 May 2021 and are therefore no longer eligible for June 2021.

Antivirus A plus was intended for companies that were closed by the authorities. With Antivirus B, the state granted an allowance for wage compensations for companies that were indirectly affected by the COVID crisis, e.g. through a decline in turnover or resources.
